

WHITEPAPER

Welcome to BILLIE'S WEEKEND COLLECTIVE

BWC is a collection of 10,000 NFTs (non fungible tokens) with over three hundred unique traits drawn by Brazilian artist Fiorello.

Being a Billie entails exclusive access to IRL and URL events, future NFT Whitelists, Retail Drops, Alpha Groups and perks extending into the Landian Metaverse which holds additional benefits within our ecosystem.

The longer a Billie is held, the more reward metrics will unlock for the owner. Our goal is to bridge NFTs with real-world utility, web3 engagement, and social experiences that is made possible by our community.

THE Team

Our team spans across the globe from talented magical humans from San Francisco, Colombia, Costa Rica, Chile, Spain. Knowledgeable creators with a vast background in art, culture, crypto, business, and building a brand that will last a lifetime.

Vision

We set out to connect people from around the world that love life, a good party, and giving back.

We want to create a future on a planet that is cared for, a world in which people look out for each other, and a place where technology helps facilitate real connection rather than creating more isolation.

Manifesto

This project is inspired to exist because we believe we are stronger together.

We are aware of the intrinsic need to enjoy every moment of life, connect with others and give back.

Our goal is to create connection, spread love, and inspire humanity to enjoy life and give back in meaningful ways.
